Levin Little Theatre Newsletter

September 2026

Greetings from the Levin Little Theatre society committee, and welcome (albeit not a very warm one!) to Spring!

We've been busy over here at LLT, with some fresh new updates to our website and busily getting our upcoming show, Verdict, ready to perform in November-December. See more about this later in this newsletter.

Since our last newsletter, we've had two fantastic shows: first, Blackadder the 3rd: Butler to the Prince (directed by Reon Materman), then two one-act plays, 2b or nt 2b and Eating the Wolf (directed by Sarsha Forbes). We hope you enjoyed these as much as we enjoyed putting them on! Thank you to our talented directors, production teams, and committee members who make these shows possible. And a massive thank you to our valued sponsors and audience members - we couldn't do it without you, and we truly appreciate your help and support. Times are tough for local theatre right now, and we couldn't do what we do without you.

On that note, we have a few fundraisers coming up, so please stay tuned via our website and social media pages - links are located at the end of this newsletter.

Coming Up

Verdict is a participatory horror show co-created by Alanah Munn and Pan Clark, set to be performed for the first time since its debut at BATS Theatre (Wellington) in 2024.

Featuring the trials of three well-known gothic literature characters: Dr Frankenstein, Count Dracula, and Dr Jekyll/Mr Hyde, Verdict's courtroom sees the souls of the dead put on trial for their sins.

You, damned souls of the audience, are the jury tasked with sending them to either the Above, a sanitised afterlife for those who have atoned for their sins, or the Below, a hellish place for those who are yet to seek redemption.

Content Warning

R13 Horror, simulated blood, flashing lights, loud and/or sudden noises, audience interaction/participation, adult themes. Parental discretion advised.

Directed by: Belinda Chainey and Geena Collins-Oldham.

Show season: November 20th - December 5th 2026.

Tickets available soon via our website.
